VI. PLACE OF CATTLE-SHOW AND ITS SUITABILITY AS REGARDS WATER-SUPPLY. SANITATION Etc.

There was no space within the precincts of the temple either for the gathering of cattle or for the show, as all available --- space was occupied by shops etc.

As usual, all cattle were picketted mostly on occupied lands adjoining the Kolar-Sampur Road and to a small extent on Hiduvali lands adjoining Chickballapur Nandy road.

Water supply was abundant both for cattle and men at these places which were well suited from a Sanitary point of view.

This year a neat and spacious field by the side of Kolar-Sompur road was selected for the cattle-show and the same was enclosed by rope --- fencing with separate gates for the entrance of men and cattle and wide roads inside.

The leading gentlemen of Chickballapur and Nandy and Members of the Committee were accommodated in a large tent pitched for the purpose and the prizes and certificates were granted to prize winners by the Deputy Commissioner after delivering an interesting and instructive speech on the advantages of such Shows which was very much appreciated by the exhibitors and people assembled.

Out of Rs.247/- expended, Rs.147/- were contributed by the District Board and the balance (Rs.100/-) from the Muzrai Funds.

IX. CONCLUDING REMARKS.

The cattle show was held in connection with the Jatra of Sri Bhoganandeswaraswami at Nandi Village, which commended on the 24th --- February and closed on the 3rd March 1914.

The Cattle show was arranged to be held on the 28th February 1914.

In all there were 53 bulls, 16,490 bullocks, 15 cows and 192 calves collected for the Jatra.

From the 24th February, tickets were issued for the cattle that were selected to be brought to the Show Ground.

Mr. Narasimha Iyengar, the Veterinary Superintendent, assisted by the Amildar and the Assistant Veterinary Inspector and the --- members of the Committee selected the best cattle among the numbers collected for the jatra and only those that had tickets were allowed into the Show Ground. No fees were charged for the entry as the owners had already paid a fee of four annas per pair for the jatra.

The Sub-Division Officer, the Veterinary Superintendent and the Amildar took up the task of selecting the best among the --- admitted cattle for the prizes and at the suggestion of the Deputy Commissioner & President, Rosettes of different colours representing the three classes of prizes were pinned to the coats of the winners to avoid confusion.

Winners were given prizes and printed certificates by the Deputy Commissioner in the presence of the Committee members and other gentlemen assembled.

The collection consisted chiefly of bulls and bullocks, cows and calves. No goats or sheep ar buffaloes were exhibited.

The cattle were brought chiefly from the Taluks of Chikballapur, Sidlaghatta, Chintamani, Srinivasapur and Kolar of the Kolar District, Bangalore, Dodballapur, Devanahalli, Chennapatna, and Hosakote of the Bangalore District, and Mandya of the Mysore District.

There were none from outside the Province.

The highest value realized for the best pair in Hallikar, Bettadadana and Amrutha-Mahal varieties was Rs.670/-, Rs.625/- and 465/- respectively and for that of Nadudana was Rs.525/

The lowest value realized for the best pair in each of the Hallikar, Bettadadana, and Amruthamahal classes being Rs.220/-, 250/- and Rs.320/- respectively and for that of Nad Rs. 230/-.

Many ryots and brokers from Bellary Cuddappa, Chittoor, Salem, and South Arcot Districts had assembled at the fair to make purchases. The purchases were chiefly made for Agricultural and draught purposes.

The fair was on the whole very satisfactory. It was well attended.

The specimens of animals exhibited in each class during the year were superior to those of previous years. From this, it can be --- safely said that the breed is improving year after year and the prices are on the increase.

Deputy Commissioner,
Kolar District.
